Mrs. M. O. Field was in Burlington on Wednesday.

Joseph Drolette was kicked by one of his horses on Saturday last, making a bad wound on his leg, between the knee and ankle. Dr. Sharon of Shoreham was called to attend him.

Mrs. B. Helen Smith Rogers was the daughter of William C. and Mary Allen Smith, was born in Moores, N. Y., Oct. 21, 1850, and passed from this life on Monday, July 23, after a long and painful illness. Her early childhood was spent in Nashua, N. H., from which place her father entered the Civil war in 1862, dying in service on January 4, 1863. She was married April 24, 1868, to Edward C. Rogers, who with two sons, Willard C. of this place, Robert W. of Worcester, Mass., and five grandchildren survive her. After a few years' residence in Orwell they moved to Big Rapids, Mich. While there she made many friends, was an active worker in the church and a correspondent of the home paper, "Big Rapids Herald." In 1889 they moved to Shoreham. While living there she was thrown from her carriage and sustained an injury which lamed her for life. After living a few years each in Middlebury and Bethel they moved to their home in this place. She buried her brother, Eber N. Smith, a year ago and a son, Arthur, January 12, 1892. The funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist church, when Rev. Samuel Rose officiated, paying a just tribute to the many virtues and exemplary life of the wife, mother and friend. Mrs. Will Church sang very acceptably "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" and "Face to Face," with accompaniment by Mrs. E. O. Porter. A. J. Blackmar was in charge. The bearers were her two sons, Willard C. and Robert W., a grandson, J. Munger, Isaac Rogers and Charles Rogers. Several members of the Mary Baker Allen chapter, D. A. R., of which she was an honored and valued member, were present. Although she had not been able to be at the meetings many times, she enjoyed the work and the kind attentions of her sister members. Out of town people at the funeral were her son, Robert, and wife of Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Emily Rogers, Isaac Rogers and wife and Charles Rogers and wife of Middlebury; Mrs. Eliza Fairservice of East Middlebury; Mr. and Mrs. John Munger of Benson, Arthur Rogers, a grandson of Worcester, Mass.; Miss Laura Bascom and Mrs. John Birchard of Shoreham. The interment was in the family lot in Middlebury cemetery where the committal services were held. For a long time suffering from a trouble that baffled skill, yet through it all she was patient, uncomplaining, waiting, with no hope of improvement, for that release which at last came painlessly. Early in life she united with a church of the Congregational faith, and had remained faithful to her convictions. Her son, Willard, and wife who during part of her illness had lived with her and latterly near her, gave her loving care and did much to relieve body and mind of its burden of care and suffering. Mrs. Emily Rogers was with her at different times and assisted in ministrations that brought her much comfort. Owing to her lameness she had not been able to enjoy the social side of life as had been her wont, yet she kept her interest in the events of the day and enjoyed the companionship of her neighbors and friends. A good mind she had and the reading of choice books and papers whiled away many hours that would have been weary without it. To this woman lately one of us and now gone from among us that she was a good wife, a fond mother, a faithful friend giving safe counsel, an example in so many ways to her children and friends, is our tribute to her life and the sweet memory that is left us and should live after her.

CARD OF THANKS.

Our gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their kindness to our dear wife and mother during her long and painful illness, their kind thought for us can hardly find expression in words; for the pastor's words of comfort, for the sweet music, for the beautiful floral tribute, to the members of the D. A. R. who were present at the burial service and every one who remembered to us in our sorrow we give our earnest thanks.

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peablies, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used. 'So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at JOHN L. SLATTERY'S Park Drug Store."
